COLONIAL DAMES TO UNVEIL MONUMENT

Exercises at Stone Marking Beginning of Braddock Road to Be Held May 26.

Alexandria, Va., May 10 .- A monument which will mark the beginning of the old Braddock road in Alexandria, the route taken by Gen. Braddock when he left Alexandria in 1755 to fight against the French and Indians, will be unveiled the afternoon of May 26 by the Colonial Dames of America in Virginia. It is expected that a large gathering of the Colonial Dames from Virginia will attend the Work of erecting the monument is now in progress. It is located in a triangle formed by the Mount Vernon highway and the Braddock road, in Braddock Heights, near the northern boundary of the city. It is composed of cannon which were abandoned by Gen. Braddock in 1755 in this city. For a great number of years they were used to mark the corners of the streets, and several years ago were taken up and presented to Mount Vernon Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, this city.

Through Miss Rose M. MacDonald this organization will present the can-non to the Colonial Dames, and Mrs. James Lyon, of Richmond, will pre-Visiting dames on their arrival her the Alexandria committee. Follow ing the ceremonies incident to the unveil ing they will be entertained by Mrs. Mary G. Powell and her daughter, Mrs. Louis S. Scott. The next morning the menument similar to the one erected here, which will mark the end of the route in Virginia, will be unveiled.

A tablet will be placed on the monument bearing the following inscription on one side: "This monument marks the trail taken by the army of Gen. Braddock, which left in April, 1735, to defend the western frontier against the French and Indians, erected by the Society of the Colonial Dames of Virginia, May 28.

In the side is the following inscription The cannon used here was abandoned Gen. Braddock at old Alexandria April, 175. The cobblestones composing the mount were taken from the streets of Alexandria, where they were placed in US;

George W. Kelly, "S years old, was taken ill at a clock this morning at the city gas plant and died before medi-cal aid could be summoned. The deceased was unmarried and a son of the late Thomas Kelly. Two brothers, Thomas F. and William Kelly, survive. The funeral arrangements have not yet

Miss Ellen Fegan's funeral took place at 9:30 o'clock this morning from St. Mary's Catholic Church. Services were conducted by Rev. H. J. Cutler, paster, and burial was in St. Mary's Cemetery. Pallbearers were Herbert J. Rose, J. D. Normoyle, W. H. Sweeney, William Desmond, F. J. Higgins, and M. T. Dwyer.

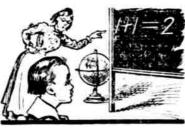

In the Corporation Court today in the case of S. P. Fisher, administrator against J. P. Steiner, a decree was enred for the sale of the estate of the te August Ochlert. In the case of In the case of Fred G. Cowie and others against Towels. Schofield Company, a decree was entered topointing J. Bandall Caton special comassigner to report. In the case of Guy others a dicree for sale of property was entered.

James Carter, colored, was fixed to Market, for purchasing liquor for a miner by An ap Justice Caton in the police court to the Fed Justice Caton in the policy court to the Federation of Citizens' Associations day. The man purchased half a pint for the fund for collection of data on the liquor for a 12-year-old box, it was testified, and the latter gave some of it could and District governments.

Australia is to have bakeries under the last Monday in September, government control.

Curing Catarrh is A Simple Method

Go to its Source and the Cure Is Then Accomplished.

the blood know that catarch is sim a blood trouble.

Most people, uninstructed in this mem braneous disease, treat their nose and roat as if catarrh was a local trouble, is not so. To treat catarrh it is nec-sary to go into the stomach, the liver,

And there is in S. S. S. certain ingre-dients which cause these mucous sur-

Read the circular wrapped around the bottle. It is important,

There's Evidence

of satisfactory banking service in steadily increasing patronage. The business of this bank has been growing for nearly fifty years.

We now have over 32,000 open accounts! Is YOURS among them?

ErSame rate of interest paid on both large and small accounts. National Savings and Trust Company

Corner 15th and N. Y. Ave.

HOLY NAME LEAGUE FORMED.

Will Be Held This Evening. Keen interest is manifested in the for-mation of the Holy Name League, a meeting of which will be held this evening at 7:30 o'clock at the residence of the chairman of the joint committee of the Washington section of the Holy Societies, Frank J. Wissner, 1312

Thirty-first street northwest.
At the meeting of St. Stephen's branch of the Holy Name Society Sunday night in the parish hall at Twenty-fourth and K streets, the plan of organizing a base ball team representing the parish and was unanimously adopted. John J. McMahon was elected

ALLIES' POSITION IS CUT BY THE TURKS

Constantinople Claims Victory, with Heavy Loss for Foe, on Gallipoli Peninsula.

By LUDWIG VON KLEIN Constantinople (via Berlin and Amsterfam). May 10 .- Defeat of the allies on Gallipoli peninsula and of the Russians in the Aserbeidjan province of Persia was officially announced here today.

Turkish troops, it was stated, penerated the positions of the allies at Ari

Burnu after repulsing atacks there and at Sed-Ul-Bahr. Heavy losses were suffered by the allies, In Aserbeldjan the Russians were taken surprise near Dilman and the Turks afficted severe losses. The official statement follows Attacks by the enemy from Ari Burn and Sed-Ul-Bahr under protection of his guns were repulsed with heavy Part of the left wing of our roops penetrated positions at the Ari Burnu, capturing some trenches and a large quantity of war material and proisions stored there, and stores in other laces were set on fire.

"The fleet of the enemy at the Dar lanelles is at present inactive. The land press of the enemy at Sed-Ul-Bahr, after ecciving re-enforcements, attempted to epeat their attacks Saturday, making ssaults until midnight. He was driven ack to his intrenchments, losing heavily. "In the Caucasus the situation is devoleping favorably for us. In the prov-ince of Arebedjan we made attacks near Dilman on April 29 and May 1. The folexandria where they were placed in 1753 and act of the Virginia house of inflicting considerable losses."

DEFENDS CITIZEN BODIES.

E. F. Colladay Says Association Represent Public Opinion.

Those who "laugh at citizens' associations and says, 'What can a handful of men accomplish?' " were scored by E. F. oliaday, president of the Federation of Associations, in addressing the Mideity Association last night, "These people say," said Mr. Colladay, 'that a citizens' association does not epresent public opinion. A single assolation may only represent the opinion of its neighborhood, but when you have in association for every neighborhood and have them all binded into a central body composed of delegates from each association, then you have organized publie opinion. And it is public opinion, after all, that swings all laws. It is what the President of the nation is now awaiting." Announcement was made that the Comave a farmers' line along the south side of the Northern Liberty Market, to ex-tend in K street from Fifth street east to the end of the market. It was also inconced that the name of the market m will be changed to Convention Hall

SARAH STRASBURGER DIES.

Washington for the past forty-three years. She leaves her husband, Zody Strasburger; a daughter, Mrs. Jenny oblenzer, of Boston, and three sonsdilton Strasburger, of this city, and libert and Irwin Coblenzer, of New Funeral will be from the residence, 306 Belmont street northwest, at 2 'clock tomorrow afternoon. mon and Stern will officiate. Inter ent will be in the cemetery of the Vashington Hebrew Congregation.

"OPIUM PIPE" REPEATED.

Introduction of Paul Swan Is Ad ditional Feature.

An addition to the play last night was the introduction of Paul Swan, "the most beautiful man in the world," who was given an entire act. In the harem scene.

America.

The armies and navies of all the warring nations are shown as well as the neutral countries most likely to be drawn into the conflict before many more months.

Swift Specific Co., 110 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

Another feature of the show was the Catarrh is very often the result of some other blood trouble, some germ that gets into the blood and multiplies beyond the control of nature.

S. S. S. is the remdy. To not accept a substitute for this matchless remedy.

CONTRABAND ON TWO STEAMERS

New York, May 10.-The cargo lists o left last Friday for Liverpool, and the American liner Philadelphia, which sailed for the same port on Saturday, indicate American liner Philadelphia, which sailed for the same port on Saturday, indicate that they have sufficient contraband aboard to bear out Dr. Dernburg's statement that they would be torpedoed.

Besides a large carge of provisions, the Transylvania has a case of arms, many hundred tons of copper, and several hundred barrels of lubricating oil on board. The Philadelphia carried nearly 1,000 bars of silver, a quantity of lubricating oil, and in addition to general merchandise, foodstuffs, and supplies for the American Red Cross, has many cases listed as hardware.

Maury I. Diggs Loses Again. San Francisco. May 10.—The Federal Court of Appeals today denied the ap-peal of Maury I. Diggs from the decision of the lower court sentencing him to two years in prison on the charge of trans-porting.

"Seven Keys to Baldpate" Admirably Suited to Stock

the writer chap, and Miss Eva Mac Francis playing opposite him.

Suffice it to say that in transform ing Earl Derr Biggers' novel to the stage Mr. Cohan achieved one of the eloping genuine surprises.

Maud Gilbert, assuming the Andre, as Elija: Graham Velsey, as young Bland; Miss Nanon Welch, as Mary Norton; Miss Teresa Dule, as

Rhodes: Robert Lowe, as

John Kline, as Thomas Hayden: Georg

Marshall, as the owner of Baldplate and Harry Maitland, as chief of police render capable support in the many "fat" roles of the melodrama, to which may be added praise of the beauty of the one set, which is the office of Baldpate Inn, and identical with that shown in the original presentation of Wanda Manning, harpist, and Carl Kuebler and Loy Evans, trombone and tuba soloists. Their offerings include soprano solos, a baritone solo, an ensemble of voices and brass accompaniment, with Several other offerings better than usual support the big headline attracair acrobatics by the famous Flying Rusminstrel; a pleasing round of song and humorous chatter, with a telephone song feature, by Prince and Deerie, and Harry Pullman Plans Improvements.

performers throughout their act.

Gavin Harris, as Mayor Cargan;

And the clever melodrama

By JULIA CHANDLER MANE, Now that the dramatic season of 1914is has rung down the final curtain upon new productions and we rely upon stock companies and vaudeville for our amuse ment, it behooves us to awaken to a full-er realization of the excellent aggregaafternoon and evening in the home ot ermanent stock.

And there could be no better week than the present to achieve this realization, for the Poli Players are presenting "Sev-en Keys to Baldpate," which at the end or the Poli Piayers are part of the Poli Piayers are part of a season's run in New York was conceded one of the genuine triumphs of the dramatic year, judgment which has been it was as splendidly presented here in the fall with George Parson visualizing the writer chap, and Miss Eva Machael and the property of the pr tober at $2 prices. I, for one, felt that all the enthusiastic terms which had been employed in describing the play fell short, for, in this melodramatic farce, Cohan and Harris brought us not only the most us work from the prolific pen of fully mystifying stage story which had held the local boards in many a moon. "Seven Keys to Baldpate" is not the sort of thing that previous experienc had lead us to expect from Mr. Cohan, a fact which furnished but one of the many surprises of the plece, which is fairly saturated with the unexpected from prologue to epilogue, cach mystery so delighting the auditor and ntensifying his interest that, by the time of the final curtain, he is in such an amiable frame of mind that he is quite willing to forgive the daring trickery the playwright has practiced upon his audience for the sake of further novelty. While the program admits but two acts. the prologue and epilogue round out a very skillful and complete four, the former serving to introduce the audience to William Hallowell Magee, a young author of "best sellers," who has made with his friend, the owner of Wager Baldpate Inn, that he can go to the lonellest spot on earth and write a novel of 10,000 words in twenty-four hours. summer hotel on the top of a moun tain in the dead of winter is decided to represent the quintessence of desolation, Baldpate Inn is chosen as the place or the work, and here we find Elijan

B. F. KEITH'S.

Quimby and his good wife preparing for shown in the guest at the rise of the first curtain. the piece.

The Fashion Show-Vaudeville. One of the most enjoyable altogether and through and through bills of this the harp; cornet, harp, and tuba solos, vaudeville season opened at the B. F. and other musical selections of operatic and classic merit by unmistakable arime of applause awarded the Fashion tists. The scenic background Show of 1915, featuring Mrs. Sherburne (Peggy) G. Hopkins, jr., of Washingto D. C., as Eve, the maker of styles, it was proved that this exhibition of beauty and clothes drew the capacity house, who applauded with equal vigor every other act on the exceptionally good bill. Peggy Hopkins, the wife of a popular Washingtonian, has made further elaborations on her good clothes discrimina-tion, in her footlight appearance, more satisfying than the most exacting woman could hope. Since her escape from the clutches of what she called a "too fond husband" Washington has mourned the loss of Peggy, and her clothes and F street has languished sadly. Now F street can acrutinize Peggy at close ange in her intimate conceptions of what a well-dressed woman should don upon rising and also in her retiring attire. Frank Sturgis and a score of attractive models displaying the latest clothes from New York and Washington shops assist

Mrs. Hopkins.
Willard, "The Man Who Grows" while you walt and watch with bated breath, and presents one of the most unique acts in vaudeville, gave an entertaining performance. performance.

A farce entitled "A Telephone Tangle" of his plans for the betterment of his department at the May meeting of the association last night. Troop I had and other well taken characters who get sadly and amusedly mixed on the same work. wire, brought much laughter and ap-plause. Ten singers and musicians in an elaborately staged act called "Co-SARAH STRASBURGER DIES.

Prominent in Religious and Social Circles.

Sarah Strasburger, 62 years old, prominent in local Jewish religious and social circles, died yesterday afternoon at Garfield Hospital after an illness of about a week.

Mrs. Strasburger, who was the mother of Judge Milton Strasburger, of the Municipal Court, had resided in Washington for the past forty-three years. She leaves her husband, Zody Strasburger; a daughter, Mrs. Jenny times in "Will Some One Name My Nationality." Kurtis, with his educated roosters, the only ones in vaudeville, roosters, the only ones in vaudeville, give an amusing act of acrobatic stunts interspersed with crowing.

BELASCO.

War Pictures.

"With the Fighting Forces of Europe" will again be exhibited today and the balance of the current week at 2:30 and 8:30 at the Belasco Theater.

The opportunity of seeing these markable pictures in all the glory their natural color will not be afford Washington again, as upon leaving here Mr. J. Malcolm Dunn, who is lecturing in a delightful way, starts on the trip to the second presentation at the Belasco of "The Opium Pipe," the fantastic Persian play written by Mrs. Christian Hemmick and presented by least second presented by least seco essary to go into the stomach, the liver, the lungs, the kidneys and all the vital ornans of the body. And it is S.S. S. that at once enters the entire blood circulation, all the organs of the body, daughter-in-law of the Massachusetts Senator, is chairman. The French Ambassador occupied one of the boxes.

the pictures before any other American managers knew the films had reached America.

faces to change or convert their secretions into a substance for easy elimination. A special book on this subject will be mailed to all who write to The Swift Specific Co., 116 Swift Bldg., AtOf Omar Khayyam
Another feature of the show was the
Another feature of the show was the Vaudeville.

Combination Ice Pick, Crown Cork Opener and Corkscrew. 10c REGIMENTAL PUNCH

HUNT SLEEPING CHILDREN.

Police Find "Missing" Girls Safe in Bed. Nellie and Lillian Frenzel, 5 and 10 years old, of 1347 Twenty-ninth street orthwest, disappeared at 7 o'clock last in accordance with instructions from the owner of the summer hostelry, who also orders the caretaker to turn over to Magee the key ("the only key") to Bald-scores turned out in the search. night. Two hours later a frantic call The neighborhood was alarmed and this morning the children were still mark-This done, Quimby and his wife take ed as missing on police books. ment, it behooves us to awaken to a fuller realization of the excellent aggregation of dramatic artists now in Washington under the Poll banner and the tain side, leaving the lonely guest to high-class productions of comparatively new plays which are being offered every there are the prologue and one settles down to a the prologue and one settles down to a

the prologue and one settles down to a
the prologue and one presto.
They had tired of playing shortly after the prologue and one settles down to a straight stretch of comedy, when, presto! the action switches to hilarious farce, interspersed with a sample of every melodramatic thrill of which the novel

their supper and slipped to their room. ENDS LIFE WITH GAS

Body Found in Bathroom by Maid. Husband, Prostrated, Says Wife Was Ill.

iost satisfactory dramatic feats of his Mrs. Villa Campbell, 34, wife of W. D. entire career, proving his genius for accumulating clever situations and denothing in point of presentation at the hands of the Poli Players, for it is admirably suited to stock as well as to the varying talents of the leading of the company, Albert Ros coe giving a clean-cut performance it his portraval of the novel writer: Miss the blackmailing member of the key oxygen apparatus. holding party with a sincerity to type Mr. and Mrs. Campbell had been mar- of emergency. further demonstrates her versa ried about a year. Mrs. Campbell was It was learned vesterday that the slides described as a beautiful woman. The continue in the canal, although ships are tility; Louis Haines making a distinctive hit in his admirable character study as Peters, the Hermit, while Miss Helen Tracy, as Mrs. Quimby; Charles written by Coroner Nevitt.

CIRCUS DRAY LABELED

Cannon Cracker Is Exploded Under It, and Later Boys Try to Stone Kaiser's Portrait.

The police are NOT looking for the who yesterday attempted a tardly dynamite outrage against "Ger-reason for this inactivity on th part of the police is that they haven't Another is that nobody knows whether it was a man, woman or child who attempted the outrage. Still another is that the object of the attempted outrage is a circus wagon gorgeously were performing atop the huge dray at Ringlingville yesterday afternoon some one fired a cannon cracker under it. usual support the big headline attrac-tion, including a spirited offering of mid-Later a guard was assigned to the circus wagon to prevent boys from stoning picture of the Kaiser that adorned its

MAKING MORE SUBMARINES.

Germany Preparing For More Ex

Colemen, the singing ventriloquist, whose offering is both new and highly entertensive Under Sens Warfare. taining throughout. The added attrac-tions are the Hearst-Selig news pictures, with glimpses of the war country included; comedy photoplays, including a British Attack German Shops. Maj. Raymond Pullman, chief of police, old the Piney Branch Citizens' Asso-Liverpool, May 10 (S.p. m.),—Anti-Ger-man mobs are redoubling their violence. German shops near the docks have been clation of his plans for the bettermen closed at 6 p. m.

WAR PERIL MAY ALTER ATLANTIC FLEET PLAN!

Called Off as Matter of Precaution

Atlantic Fleet will not be sent through the Panama Canal to Pacific waters in July as at present planned by the Sec-retary of the Navy. When the announcement is made that the fleet cannot culties in the canal will be cited as the cause for the change of program. Offi-cials will not admit it, but there is reaon to believe that the strategists of the savy insist that at this juncture in the world's affairs it would be unwise to leave the Atlantic coast unprotected. The strategists are not figuring on war, pos-sibly, but as a matter of precaution they have advised, it was said yesterday, that the Atlantic Fleet be retained in its husband suffered a nervous breakdown passing through it daily. Gen Goethals last night. A certificate of suicide was told the Secretary of the Navy, so it is than thirty feet can not go through the

'GERMANY' ATTACKED WASHINGTON GIRL

cess as Prima Donna of Musical donna of the musical comedy, body Home" at the Princess Ti on West Thirty-ninth street.

Miss Rowland went upon the stage an exquisite dancer, and Mr. Carle soon promoted her from the chorus to play a leading comedy role in his support. London. May 10.—All signs point to She played soubrette roles in two of preparations by Germany for submarine his New York productions, and then warfare on a much larger scale than has went to Chicago as a principal ingenue cluded; comedy photoplays, including a previously been attempted. An exchange of the La Salle Theater productions. laughmaker of George Ade, and, at the second afternoon performance, the reproduction of the Nationals-Detroit baseball built at Kiel for use in the Baltic. Neugame on the electrical scoreboard.

A change of bill is announced for the Marking at Geneva from Pola on She was engaged by F. Ray Comstock agme on the electrical scoreboard.

A change of bill is announced for the latter half of the week, with possible modifications and additions today and to-Two Zeppelins have also arrived at electric letters in front of the theater, and it is freely predicted that before another season passes, Miss Rowland will be a full fledged star under the management of one of the biggest producing firms in New York City. smashed and their contents thrown into wife of Charles Ruggles, a well-known a little over a year ago.

Trip Through Panama Canal May Be

home waters. The knowledge that the administration has stopped considering whether it is advisable to send the fleet through the canal became known yesterday Campbell, District manager for the ing a conference by Gen. George W. Globe-Wernicke Office Furniture Com-Dany, committed suicide at her home. Zone, with officials of the Navy De-1203 Clifton street northwest, last even- partment. Among others Gen. Goethals 1293 Clifton street northwest, last evening. Grieving over illness is ascribed by the husband as the cause.

The body was found by Sallie Brewer, colored maid, in the bath room. The door was locked and the gas turned on. Dr. Charles V. Petteys, of 1211 Clifton street, was summoned and Emergency Hospital notified. Efforts were made to revive the woman with pulmoter and bractically impossible to not the fleet. revive the Noman with pulmotor and practically impossible to put the fleet through the isthmian waterway in case reported, that vessels of a draft of more

Adele Rowland Scores Personal Suc-

Washington girl, who is the prima Rowland is well remembered in Washington, where she was a pupil of the Central High School at Seventh and and is still employed in the Postoffice theatrical season in New York, has O streets. Her father has been in the government service for some years.

MAKES BIG HIT

Comedy, "Nobody Home."

soon after leaving school, beginning proceedings brought against five local first in the choras in the company of unions and workers by saloonkeepers. which Richard Carle was a star. She proved herself a beautiful singer and In private life Miss Rowland is the

M. Brooks 6. The Woman's Store 1109 G Street

May Clearance Sale

While this is essentially a sale of quality suits, which are correct in style, smart looking and of serviceable materials, we are also offering some unusual values in Summer Dresses and

Suits

100 Suits in smart fabrics. $10 Formerly sold up to $22.50..... 200 of the finest Suits shown this season. Exclusive in model and fabric. $25
Formerly sold up to $50......

Dresses

Tub Dresses in linen, voile and organdie. These are the very newest Summer Dresses and sell elsewhere for

Waists

1,000 waists are placed on sale today at the greatest reductions ever offered by us.

$1, $1.98, $2.98

WashSkirts

A lot of well tailored Wash Skirts in Golfine, Corduroy, P. K. and Linen.

$1.98, $2.98, $5

A Trade Boosting

is made by every man who comes to see us. We are specialists in small printing-

we don't just do small jobs

And It

BOOSTS TRADE

Inexpensive cards, inserts, folders, circulars, form letters, post cards, etc., are the best kind of

We are also specialists in low

Angel & Nobels

1320 New York Ave.

Phone Main 2981.

Irip---

as a side line.

business boosters.

BREWERY STRIKE NEAR END. Labor Union Hears of Conference with Brewers' Counsel.

That the brewery workers strike earing an end was indicated by the announcement made at the weekly meet-ing of the Central Labor Union last night that representatives of the union have been in recent conference with counse for the brewers. It was intimated by the secretary that the brewers did not desire to peace terms because of the injunction seeking to enjoin the workers from "picketing" saloons. The first injunction case, brought by 8,000,000 GERMANS IN U. S.

Theodore Stoner, comes up in the Dis trict Supreme Court this morning

Census Report Shows Great Number of Teutons in Country. There are more than $ 000,000 residents in the United States, naturalized and un or whose parents were born in the father These figures were given out yes terday by the Census Bureau in respo to an inquiry on the matter. The number of German-born persons in this countr over 21 years of age totals 1,278,667

SHOT FOR PEACE OVERTURES. May 10 - A Sofia dispatch

NOW

FOR THE

DAINTIEST

AND MOST

OF ALL

ICE CREAMS

war. Enver Pasha, and asked that he try to effect immediate allies were arrested and effect immediate peace with the were arrested and shot by his or-

Luscious Strawberry Ice Cream The "Velvet Kind" Made from the Choicest Fresh Berries

We always plan for the Strawberry Treat months ahead. The growers know that we must have the finest strawberries for this Ice Cream Festival and watch the strawberry crop carefully. The delicious "Velvet Kind" Strawberry Ice Cream made from fresh fruit can be secured from now on at reliable dealers.

CHAPIN-SACKS MFG. CO.